

Refund Policy

Share digital card as a digital business card services provider we give our user 7 days of an extensive free trial of our service. Where users can use all services related to share digital card. We give a 7-day trial to the user for the reason if the user was happy with our service they can buy it. If the user buys this service after the end of 5 days of the free trial period, it is taken into account as an informed choice and thereby refund is not applicable at all.

Before purchasing you must read all terms and condition, return policy properly.

If user directly purchase Digital card without the Free trial, he/she must read the return policy and terms and condition properly Before further purchasing the digital card, as there won't be any return of money once the service is purchased.

After purchasing the digital card, if the user found any issues in the existing digital card then user can report the issue on "Hello@merabiznesscard.com". So our technical team will try to resolve the issues as soon as possible but the amount will not be refundable.

Share digital card not responsible for any refund on cancellation of the subscription.